

Note Regarding the Scheduled September 9, 2005 North Carolina Mental Health
Planning and Advisory Council Meeting

The North Carolina Mental Health Planning and Advisory Council meeting which had been scheduled for Friday, September 9, 2005 was cancelled due to travel restrictions within the State. In lieu of this meeting, there were two conference calls (one for the Adult Sub-Committee and one for the Child Sub-Committee) to allow another opportunity for Council members to give input about the achievements of transformation, as well as the priorities and challenges of same. Formal minutes were not taken.